September 2018

A Message from Mr. Freke

Greetings to you all,

I need your help with a challenge we have at Endeavour School. Lost property (uniforms) is becoming a real problem. I am amazed at the number of items that accumulate within a week. At Endeavour School we talk about our learners being great Endeavour Citizens which requires students to take responsibility for and look after their things. Clearly many students at Endeavour School are failing in this area because there is a huge amount of unclaimed uniform in each of the learning communities and the hall. You can help as parents by impressing upon the children that the uniform is an expensive piece of clothing that needs to be looked after. You can also help by naming all items of clothing and showing your child the where the label/name is so they can identify their gear. The teachers will support the children in 'age-appropriate manner' but we want you as parents to get them to take responsibility for their clothes. For those of you who know your children aren't great at looking after their uniform perhaps an incentive programme where if the children has all their correct uniform each night for a week they get some type of reward. I hope we can see a reduction in the mount of lost uniforms over the next few weeks.

Endeavour School production is coming together well. Those of you who have been in the hall would have noticed our stage extension in place. I would like to thank Scott Thorne from Thorne Construction for building the extension for us. Scott and his team were also responsible for the design and building of our sand pit. Thanks Scott for your amazing support of Endeavour School it is hugely appreciated.

Congratulations to the Friends of Endeavour who ran a very successful Quiz Night last Saturday. All involved had an awesome time and it was close at the end with 3 points separating the top 3 teams. Thanks to Elysia Mills and her team who worked very hard to pull the event together and, on the night, to ensure it ran smoothly. Parents can rest assured that the teacher teams all finished 'At' expected levels. The funds raised will go toward building a shade sail over our sand-pit.

Good luck to all those involved in sport this weekend.

Go the All Blacks!

The Old Skool Quiz night was a HUGE success.

A lot of hard work organising the event came together on the night and indications are we raised a great amount of money!!

A HUGE thank you to all of our sponsors that generously donated prizes and thank you to all that came on the night and spent money on drinks, food, mystery balloons and raffles!

Thank you, once again, to CALNAR for coming to the rescue with a mobile eftpos unit on the night.

Congratulations to our PTA member Elysia who was in charge of this successful event.
